Figure 3: Add money

Participating actor: User (Customer)

Entry Conditions:
        - Customer just would like to view their account balance
        - Customer wants to add money to their account

Exit Conditions:
        - The customer has added funds to their account and can now view the new balance.
        - The customer decided to cancel adding funds to their account.

Event Flow:
        1. Customer views their balance.
        2. Customer decides to add money.
        3. The customer can either add money or cancel.